

Learnings from the UK

Hatchy and Eric's study tour

Lesson 1,
The UK is
along way
away

Lesson 2.
Electric hire cars
are nice to drive
but
a pain to charge

Lesson 3.
There are more than one
Premier Inn in High Wycomb

Lesson 4. The crew at Winchester Fire Station know how to eat.

Lesson 5.

Road rules don't apply to animals in the new forest

Lesson 6.
London is really old, really big and really busy

AR3 Team Leaders course Buckinghamshire

AR3 Team Leaders course Buckinghamshire

BARTA AR3 Team leader course

Topics-

Situational awareness:

Common species encountered, environments, impact of people and legislation applicable to the first responder.

BARTA AR3 Team leader course

Topics-

Casualty centered rescue:

Tactical use of chemical control and anatomical considerations for chosen rescue techniques.

BARTA AR3 Team leader course

Topics-

Advanced practical equine skills:

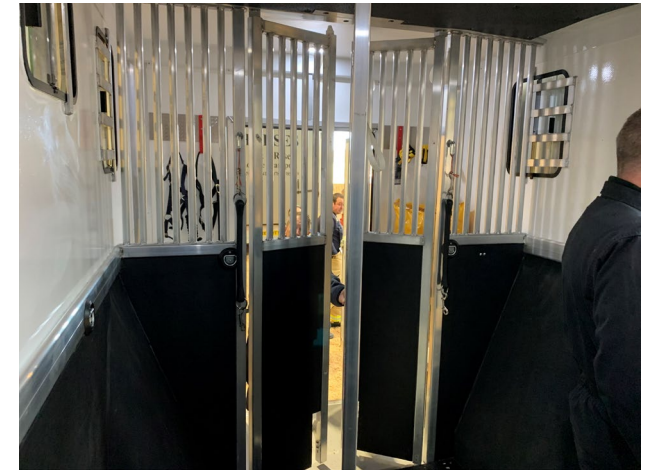

Planning safe capture,
loading,
evacuation and corralling of equines in emergencies and disasters.

BARTA AR3 Team leader course

Topics-

- Transportation:
Understanding common transportation vehicle considerations for rescue.

BARTA AR3 Team leader course

Topics-

- Case studies and scenarios:

Application of learning through table top and practical scenarios.

Winchester Fire Station visit with Adie Knight

And they have a fire pole

Workshopping restraint techniques

Hampshire Animal Rescue Vehicle

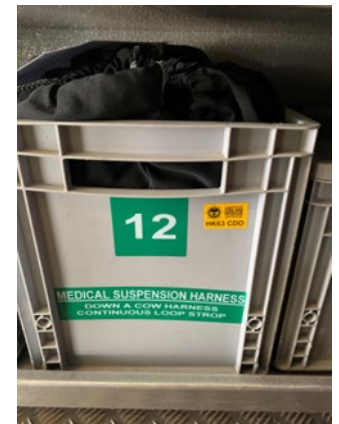

Hampshire Animal Rescue Vehicle

Hampshire Animal Rescue Vehicle

Hampshire Animal Rescue Vehicle

Lyndhurst and The New Forrest

Semi feral
Donkeys
and Ponies
of the New Forrest

Humble beginnings

- Early TLAR training area behind Lyndhurst Fire Station

Vet Training at Liphook

Vet Training at Liphook

- Practical training of Vet students

Lessons learned

Lessons learned

- Structured training to national/international standard

Lessons learned

- Structured training to national/international standard
- Vehicle and equipment requirements

Lessons learned

- Structured training to national/international standard
- Vehicle and equipment requirements
- Knowledge of equipment available

Lessons learned

- Structured training to national/international standard
- Vehicle and equipment requirements
- Knowledge of equipment available
- Value of purpose built training areas

Lessons learned

- Structured training to national/international standard
- Vehicle and equipment requirements
- Knowledge of equipment available
- Value of purpose built training areas
- Understanding of different transport types and operational challenges.

Lessons learned

- Structured training to national/international standard
- Vehicle and equipment requirements
- Knowledge of equipment available
- Value of purpose built training areas
- Understanding of different transport types and operational challenges.

We are on the right track

Special thanks to.

- Rod Stebbing
and Emtrain for instigating the
study tour

Special thanks
to.

- Jim Green and BARTA for having us over

Special thanks
to.

- Adie Knight and the Winchester crew for hosting us and dinner

Special thanks
to.

Anton and Nadine for lunch
and the trip to London

